THE AUSTIN ANCESTORS OF GEORGE WINCHESTER AUSTIN

The following is a short account of "The Western Movement" as it relates to our branch of the Austin family.

Because of an almost complete absence of records from the Stamford period, to when William Austin arrived in Indiana, this "history" has been developed from a great number of isolated data.

Charts are always in need of additions and corrections and those included are no exception..

There have been at least 50 male Austin immigrants most of whom established Austin families in America. One of these was our "immigrant". The history of our Austin Family starts with the marriage of David Austin to Margaret Stuart (Stewart) in Stamford, Ct. 10 Nov. 1740.

David may have been a descendant of the John Austin, husband of Catherine, who died 25 Aug. 1657 in Stamford, Ct. However, the descent has not been traced. Mrs. Edith Austin Moore has written a manuscript about the "John Austin of Stamford" family.

Margaret was a daughter of Daniel Stuart and Sarah. While there were at least two Stewart families in the Area, I have not been able to connect our Margaret to either.

The children of David and Margaret were (subject to change) Sylvanus; Mary; Holmes; Charles Stuart; Jeremiah; Hannah; Isaac; Isaiah & Prudence - Twins; Samuel. Charles Stuart, Holmes and Samuel lived at Pound Ridge, NY.; Jeremiah lived at Amenia, NY.; Mary m. Jenkins; Isaac (more later); others nothing. The Pound Ridge Austins left descendants but I have had little success in finding them.

David had at least one brother, Jeremiah, who was killed serving with the Second Regiment of the New York Line in the Revolutionary War. For this service, David received a six hundred acre land grant known as Lot 73. This land was a short distance northeast of Ithaca, NY. David died before getting title to the land and ownership went to his children and grandchildren. The heirs promptly got into a lawsuit over the title and the record of this action has been of great help in working out the list of David's children.

The fact that Jeremiah served with the New York troops coupled with the fact that most of David's children lived in the Pound Ridge, NY. area, suggests that David and Jeremiah were descendants of Thomas, one of the children of John and Catherine Austin, who moved to Bedford, NY. in 1685.

Isaac, son of David and Margaret, was bpt. 16 May, 1764, Stamford, CT. He m. Deborah Reynolds, probably in Fairfield Co., CT. In the early 1780s Isaac drowned at Stephens Town, Rensselaer Co., NY. Sunday evening Mar. 26, 1803, "while crossing a mill pond on the ice". Deborah died soon after. Following the death of the parents, the children seem to have been "farmed out". Their children as listed by Whiteside County, Ill. Biographical Books were: Isaac; Seymour; Joel; William; Stewart & Sarah. However, the Goshen History has the same except it lists Hobby and not Joel. How did Joel become Hobby? - Makes an interesting question.

Of the children of Isaac and Deborah, Isaac m. Ann Sherwood and settled in Tioga Co., Pa., Hobby-Joel m. 1st. Dorothy & 2nd Martha Waters, and settled in Tioga Co., Pa.; Seymour, a wagon maker and Methodist minister, died unmarried near Reynoldsville, NY.; Stewart m. Liza Reynolds and lived in Tioga Co., PA. and then in Whiteside County, Ill.; I found no definite record of Sarah; William - more later.

William Austin, son of Isaac Austin and Deborah Reynolds, was born in Rensselaer County, NY., Nov. 9, 1795. His parents died when he was seven years old (c 1802) and he and his sister, Sarah, went to live with their Uncle Reuben Reynolds (Reuben III) in Oneida County, NY.

William joined the Methodist Church in Seneca Co., NY. when he was 19 (c 1814). He served in the War of 1812 and, in 1817, gave a Quit Claim Deed to his share of Lot 73 to his brother-in-law, Richardson Havens Jr.

William m. Margaret (Peggy) Livings c. 1815, somewhere around Elmira, NY., living there until after the first child, Ezra Chase, was born. They started west c. 1818, together with the Livings, via Ohio River Raft. Ezra Chase died on the way and they stopped to bury the baby, probably at Cincinnati, Ohio. They stayed in Hamilton County for about two years.

In 1820 they were in Vevay, Ind. where Maria Livings Austin, their second child, was born. After Maria was born the family moved to near Allensville, Cotton Twp., Switzerland Co., Ind. They lived on various farms while William cleared them of trees and put the land into cultivation. In 1854 William and Peggy, with most of their children and grandchildren, moved to near Morrison, Ill., Whiteside Co. Here they lived on Section 27, Mount Pleasant Twp. until William died on 10/22/1859. Margaret died 10/3/1877. The children of William and Margaret were: Ezra Chase; Maria Livings; Miranda; Daniel L.; Dennis; Jonathan (died age 4); Silas Richmond; Martin V.; Georgeanna and William Stewart.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be carefully documented to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes recording dates, amounts, and the nature of the transactions.

Secondly, the document highlights the need for regular reconciliation. By comparing internal records with external statements, discrepancies can be identified and corrected promptly. This process helps in maintaining the accuracy of the accounts and prevents errors from accumulating over time.

Furthermore, the document stresses the importance of transparency and accountability. All financial activities should be clearly documented and accessible to the relevant stakeholders. This not only builds trust but also facilitates the audit process, ensuring that all transactions are properly justified and recorded.

In conclusion, the document provides a comprehensive overview of the financial management process. It outlines the key steps and principles that should be followed to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the financial records. By adhering to these guidelines, organizations can effectively manage their finances and maintain a high level of transparency.

Daniel Livermore Austin, son of William Austin and Margaret Livings, was born Oct. 22, 1823, in Cotton Twp., Switzerland Co., Indiana. He married Myra Ann Gary in Switzerland Co., Nov. 19, 1846. Myra Ann was the daughter of Charles Gary and Eunice Spaulding and was born in Rushford, Allegany Co., N.Y., Jan. 15, 1825. Daniel and Myra Ann lived in Indiana until after Myra Jane; Lucille Ann (Celia); George Winchester and Charles William were born. In 1854 the family, with the rest of the Austins, moved to Whiteside Co., Ill. Here they lived on Section 31, Mt. Pleasant Twp. where Augustus Eddy and John Summerfield were born. Myra Ann died on this farm on April 18, 1875 and is buried in the Lyndon, Ill., cemetery.

On October 22, 1877 Daniel married Mrs. Priscilla (Magner) Hurd, and one child was born to them, Lou Bell.

In 1879 Daniel rented the farm and moved to Lyndon, Ill. In 1882 he returned to the farm. He again rented the farm in 1884 and once more moved to Lyndon. In 1886 he sold the farm and he, Priscilla and Lou Bell moved to Judsonia, Ark. Priscilla died there Jan. 24, 1908 and Daniel died there Oct. 13, 1909. Both are buried at Judsonia.

George Winchester Austin; son of Daniel L. Austin and Myra Ann Gary, was born near Allentown, Ind., Jan. 27, 1851. In 1854, when George was three years old, the family moved to Whiteside Co., Ill., where they lived in Section 31 of Mt. Pleasant Twp. George m. Evaline L., a daughter of Ezra Hurd and Sarah Knight, born in Garnovilla, Ia., Jan. 23, 1853. When she was three years old the family moved to a farm north of Clayton Center, Ia., where she grew to young womanhood. During this time she attended a "hat making school" at Clayton City, Ia.

In 1875 she visited relatives in Buena Vista Co., including her brother, Jay Willard Hurd and her mother's cousin, Emeline Knight Schaler and Del Knight who lived in Sac County. Del was the son of Jonathan Knight, her mother's brother.

While at the Schalers, Evaline met George Winchester who had a farm across the road from the McGregors (John and Myra Jane Austin McGregor, George's sister) in Buena Vista County. Evaline went home (to Clayton Center) that winter and was married at the family home to George Austin at about 1:00 P.M. on Jan. 27, 1876 (his birthday).

They lived on the Daniel L. Austin farm, south of Morrison, for three years. Here Mae Belle and Myra Grace were born. They moved to Buena Vista County in 1879.

In Buena Vista County they settled on George's farm, where Frank Hurd and George Leigh were born. After three years they moved to another farm three miles north. Here Ethel Lillian and Guy Warren were born.

In 1895 George was elected Treasurer of Buena Vista County and moved into Storm Lake in the latter part of 1895, taking office Jan. 1, 1896. He held this office, with Mae as his Deputy, until December, 1901.

In the summer of 1902 the family (George, Evaline, Leigh, Ethel and Guy) moved to Brookings, S.D., George and Leigh going by "emigrant car", the balance of the family by passenger train. They located on 9th Street.

Frank, having completed a course in Business in Des Moines, Ia., had helped George start a Bank in Bruce, S. D. George "commuted" from Brookings, going back and forth via "the accommodation train" or with the famous "blue grays, Stella and Mildred."

During these years, between 1902 and 1905, Mae continued to be the Deputy Treasurer in Storm Lake, Iowa. Grace came to Brookings to teach and married R.A. Larson. Leigh went West to grow up with the country. Ethel and Guy were in Grade School in Brookings. Also, during these years, the Bank building burned down and the Larson's elder son, Kenneth, was born.

In 1905 the family moved to Bruce, that is the parents and Guy did. Ethel spent the school year with the Larsons and the summer months in Bruce. Mae was in Iowa; Leigh was in Idaho; the Larsons lived in Brookings and Frank, having married Nellie Malbone, lived in Bruce.

Living in Bruce during these years (1905-1913) was the Jay Willard Hurd family consisting of Uncle Jay; Aunt Mina; Sarah; William; Catherine and Ruch. (Uncle Jay was Evaline's brother)

The Austin family lived in one or two rented houses until they built a new house on "Scramble Hill" in the west part of the town of Bruce.

During the school years, 1911-12 and 1912-13, Mae (having come from Iowa), Ethel and Guy did "light housekeeping" in Brookings while Mae took shorthand at the College and/or worked in Brookings' Banks. Ethel finished high school and took one year of college.

The summer of 1913 the family moved back to Brookings and located at 914 Fourth St. Mae continued to work for the Banks; Ethel completed College in 1916; Guy finished high school in 1915 and started to College that Fall, finishing in 1920.

George Leigh married Julia Georgia and then Alma Grace Tischer. Ethel married Edward Moss Martin and Guy married Elizabeth Mabel Train.

George Winchester died in Rochester, MN. Sept. 17, 1921 and is buried in the Brookings, S. D. cemetery. Evaline died in her own home at 914-4th St. Dec. 30, 1927 and is buried in the Brookings Cemetery.

NEED

✓ The surname of Sarah wife of the immigrant John Reynolds.
 ✓ Proof that Hepzibah was a dau. of Jamems Reynolds & Phebe Fowler.
 ✓ Proof that Deborah was a dau. of Reuben Reynolds & Hepzibah.

Marion Reynolds in the Reynolds Genealogy lists the Children of Reuben and Hepzibah as, Andrew, James & Israel. But I feel sure that Reuben and Deborah should be added to this list.

This belief is based on the following. An answer in the Hartford Times has-Reuben Reynolds, m. Hepzibah-had a son Reuben who m. Ketural van Tuyl (various spelling) and moved to Laporte, IN.

And on a letter written in 1900 by Miranda Murphy a dau. of Deborah's that say-Isaac Austin and Deborah died in 1803 leaving 6 minor children-"father Willian and a young sister went to live with Uncle Ruben Renolds".

According to "The Goshen*History" Hobby Austin was a son of William Austin and Sarah Hobby, and was born in Herkimer Co., NY, on 8 Feb. 1883. However there is evidence that he was a son of Isaac Austin and Deborah Reynolds and born in Rensselaer Co., NY. The date of birth is probably right.

The Whiteside County Illinois "Portrait and Biographical Album" lists the children of Isaac and Deborah-Isaac; Seymour; Joel; William; Stewart; Sarah; While the "Goshen History" has Isaac, Seymour, Hobby; William, Stewart; Sarah. The evidence leaves little doubt but that Joel and Hobby were the same person.

Isaac Austin drowned at Stephenstown, Rensselaer Co., NY., Sunday evening, 26 Mar. 1803, his wife Deborah died "soon after" . . . they left several minor children who were "farmed out": William (my great-grandfather) went to live with "uncle Ruben Renolds". (I assume that this Reuben was the one who married Katharine van Tuyl and lived in LA Port, IN.) I believe that Joel went to live with a William Austin and his wife Sarah Hobby, assuming Hobby as a first name.

Hobby Austin was b. January 30, 1793, m. 1st Dorothy and had Ruth who died July 21, 1813, age 5 years, and is buried in a cemetery near Mainesburg, PA. Hobby married 2nd., before 1822, Martha Waters, b. Nov. 11, 1798, near Belfast, Ireland. Martha's father died and her mother, Ann, married 2nd., John W. Gibson. Her mother died in London and her ^{step}-father brought her to America. Martha died on 1865 and Hobby in 1883, both are buried in the Mainesburg Village Cemetery. Hobby and Martha had seven children but we have information about only John M., Jane Eliza and Joel Hobby. apparently the others died young. John M. was born January 3, 1823 and died Jan. 23 1825. More about Jane Eliza and Joel Hobby later.

Jane Eliza, born c. 1825, married Beriah Cradel Hart, who's mother was Mariah Luddington, and had Martha, John M., and Kate. Jane Eliza died in Kansas City, Ks. May 2 1890. More later about Joel Hobby.
